

To be LET to FARM,

FOR A TERM OF YEARS,

To Enter thereon at the usual Times in the Spring, 1784 ;

LOW GILL, in Dillicar,

IN THE PARISH OF KENDAL.

Containing thirty-one Acres, Customary Measure, the whole laid out in convenient Inclosures adjoining to each other, and not intermixed with any other Lands; well fenced and watered, and not far distant from the Common called Dillicar Fell, upon which it has an unlimited Right, with Peatmoss and Turbary Ground thereon. The Houses and Out-houses are mostly new built, covered with blue Slate, and in very good Repair.

Any Person who has a Mind to take the same may apply to John Burn, Esquire, at Orton. Mr. William Rowlandson, of Bracken-Hall; Robert Wilson, or George Wharson, of Orton aforesaid, will shew the Premises, of whom further Particulars may be had.